

COMMUNITY CALENDAR

A variety of popular music groups are touring the city's parks this summer, as the City of Portland, the Bureau of Parks, and Musicians Union Local 99 present "Music to the People".

The concerts, open free to the public, are scheduled on Tuesdays and Thursdays through August 15th. Each group will spend an afternoon giving live performances, visiting one park at noon and another at 2 p.m.:

August 1st, Lightship (rock); noon, Lair Hill Park; 2:00, Wallace Park.

August 6th, Don Kinch and the Conductors Ragtime Band; noon, Montavilla Park; 2:00 Normandale Park.

August 8th, Ed Kerchall Orchestra (polka band); noon, Gabriel Park; 2:00, Fulton Park.

August 13, Bob Bradford (jazz); noon, Unthank Park; 2:00 Fernhill Park.

August 15th, Bill Starkel Quartet; noon, Jackson High School; 2:00, Hamilton Park.

The music for these concerts is provided by a grant from the Music Performance Trust Funds, a public service organization created and financed by the Recording Industries under agreements with the American Federation of Musicians.

The Citizens Commission on Human Rights, Psychiatric Violations invites the public to come forward and give evidence before the Commission of known violations of Human Rights.

The Commission convenes every Wednesday night at 8:00 p.m. at 4112 N.E. Sandy Blvd. It is a non-governmental organization and full privacy of the individual will be respected. If anyone cannot or does not wish to make a personal appearance, the Commission will receive case histories of psychiatric abuses in writing.

The type of information sought is violations of commitment procedures, violations of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, violations of the Nuremberg Code, and inhumane treatment of mental patients.

The purpose of the group is to ensure Human Rights for mental patients.

The Black Student-Black Faculty Alliance, and the Black educational process at Portland State University are petitioning the Portland School Board to develop a Black Studies program at Jefferson High School that will introduce all students to the history and achievements of persons of African heritage. They are also asking the school board to modify its hiring policies to increase the percentage of Black teachers and counselors at Jefferson and other community schools.

Petitions will be located in the Black Studies department, Portland State University, and also at most churches and businesses in Albina.

On Wednesday, August 7th, the Western Forestry Center has arranged a bus tour to the Forest Research Facility in Centralia, Washington. The tour will leave at 9:00 a.m. and return by 5:00 p.m., and is open to the public.

Cost of the tour is $7.00 and includes lunch and transportation by air-conditioned bus.

Other forest tours for 1974 include:

August 14 - Castle Rock - Spirit Lake - Mt. St. Helens;

August 21 - Tree Farm at Black Rock and Gerlinger State Forest;

August 28 - Largest wood products plant in the world, Longview, Washington;

September 7 - Columbia Gorge - Mt. Hood Loop;

September 28 - Fall color tour, Clackamas River and Mt. Hood Loop.

Reservations are a must! Call the Western Forestry Center at 228-1367.

The Portland Symphonic Band will open its last full week of concerts for the 1974 season on Sunday, August 4th, with a performance in Laurelhurst Park at 2:30 p.m.

Other performances will be on Monday, August 5th, in Washington Park at 8:30 p.m.; Tuesday, August 6th, in Sellwood Park at 7:30 p.m.; Wednesday, August 7th, at the Volcano Theatre in Mt. Tabor Park at 7:30 p.m.; and Thursday, August 8th, downtown in Lowndale Square at 5:00 p.m. and in Columbia Park at 7:30 p.m.

Selections for the week's programs will range from the music of J.S. Bach to the sounds of The Carpenters. Conductor John Keil Richards has chosen works by Mexican, European and American composers, including several of John Philip Sousa's most popular marches. Trumpeter Fred Sautter will be featured as a soloist in the "Rose Variations" by Robert Russell Bennett.

The free concerts are sponsored jointly by the City of Portland, Multnomah County, and the Music Performance Trust Fund of the Recording Industries administered through Musicians Union Local 99.

Opportunities are available for volunteers at the Oregon Humane Society. The various openings call for volunteers to help: the public with selections for adoption; receive animals and adopt out animals; groom unsightly animals; keep up animal barnyard; with investigations; with maintenance - indoor and outdoor; with yard work; assist janitor, the secretaries and receptionists; assist Humane Education Department as speakers for Humane Education in schools and community meetings, representatives at display booths, writers for news releases, artists, fund raisers, and more.

Volunteers must be 16 years of age and should plan to spend at least one day a week at the shelter. Those volunteers to help within the education department would be scheduled to work on a more periodic basis.

Interested persons are asked to call Carolyn Mays, Education Director of the Oregon Humane Society, 285-0641, for an appointment for an interview and additional information.
