

COMMUNITY CALENDAR

An informational meeting for elementary students interested in attending Benson High School has been set for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, February 19th, and at the same time on Thursday, February 20th, in the Benson Social Room.

The meeting will include a slide presentation and informal talks with the Benson staff. Elementary students from schools in the Portland school district and their parents are invited to attend.

The Western Forestry Center will offer a Landscape Planting course beginning March 4, 1975. Designed to help area residents with landscape design, species selection, insect and disease control and other topics, the class will meet on Tuesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. through May 13th. A field trip is planned on Saturday, April 5th. Plant experts from the Portland area will serve as instructors.

Beta Psi Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. will hold its annual tribute to Black Culture with a Continental Breakfast and variety program on Sunday, February 16th, from 11:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the Matt Dishman Center, 77 N.E. Knott Street. Proceeds from this event will be used for scholarship funds. Tickets are $2.50 for adults and $1.25 for children, and may be purchased at the door.

A Preparation for Childbirth class begins February 17th from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the downtown YWCA. Class emphasis is put on family-centered maternity care. The class will give instruction on conscious relaxation and breathing for labor and delivery.

Theatre of Feast, drama especially for senior citizens, is scheduled February 14th from 11:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. at the downtown YWCA, 1111 S.W. 10th. Activities include reciting, play reading, acting, basic skills in theatre arts and audience participation.

Management for Business Change, co-sponsored by the Small Business Administration and Minority Business Opportunities Committee, is designed to help small businessmen more effectively manage the economic changes of today and to plan for 1975. It will deal with three key areas of concern: sales, production and finance.

The session will take place Wednesday, February 19th, at Portland Community College's Cascade center, 705 N. Killingsworth, in room CH C4 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Enrollment is free but limited. For more information call John Gillman of the SBA at 244-3441.

The Southeast Senior Center will celebrate Valentine's Day on Wednesday, February 19th, at 11:30 a.m. with a Sweetheart Surprise Party, to which all seniors are invited (with or without sweetheart). Guests are asked to bring valentines, of their own making if possible, to drop in the Valentine Box, and surprise games, skits and party ideas. Prizes will be awarded for the most original, the prettiest, the sweetest and the funniest surprise. Since Wednesday is Pot Luck Day, the surprise can be edible. Come prepared to have a surprisingly good time. Dance to the Hit & Miss Band.

Senior Radio Theater play-of-the-month will be "Sorry, Wrong Number" by Lucille Fletcher, read on Thursdays. The public is cordially invited to hear a tape recording of the great Agnes Moorehead starring in the play on Thursday, February 20th, at 10:30 a.m.

Don't miss February's Friday Film Festival, produced by empressario Paul Harnden in a showing of old-time movies, starting at 1:30 p.m. On Friday, February 21st, the program includes "Her First Flame" with Gail Henry, "Fast Freight" with Hal Roach's Little Rascals, "Super Hooperdyne Lizzies" by Billy Bevan and Andy Clyde, and "The Tramp" with Charlie Chaplin. There will be no charge.

The members of Bethel AME Church have collected historical items for display at the church during Black History Week. The display also includes those contributing to current history. Of special interest are the Black newspapers published in Portland over the past 75 years.
