* For FY 75-76 On-The-Job Training will replace Work Experience as the means by which a client is transitioned into the work force. Prior to this period in time, Work Experience had served a two-fold purpose: that of providing short term employment (it's true function) and sufficing as a training experience whereby a person would be transitioned into unsubsidized employment (the true function of OJT).
 Copies of the City of Portland's CETA grant application will be available for review in the Division of Manpower Planning and Administration, Third Floor, 620 S.W. Fifth Avenue, Portland, Oregon, 97204, from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, from May 5 through June 5, 1975. Written comments on the application should be addressed to: Mr. J. C.
