

Kids don't know any better.

We're all born color blind.

Prejudice is something we have to learn from the example of others.

But then, so is love.

A little understanding effort can go a long way.

In our small way, we hope to set a positive example in our own Oregon community in the way we deal with the public, business associates and our employees.

You see, we think it'd be great if we'd all just start acting like kids again.

United States National Bank of Oregon