Scottish Cousin Helps Newtz Beat Bldg. Supply Prices to Death!

Sandy MacIntosh has jotted all the way from Loch Bann, Scotland, to share the fun of celebrating prices at Newtz. The MacIntoshs have always been proud of the way that their American cousins have beaten prices crazy flat. "Och, prices," grunts Sandy, "I hate 'em. It does my heart good to see them devils shivered under my blades."

When it comes to prices, Newtz really does beat the heck out of other building supply dealers. He beats to save and he knows you do too. That's why he wants you to buy up everything and everything at a fraction of their original price and pass the savings on to you. Check this week's list and remember there's more good prices on items we don't have room for here.

EARL WINCHESTER

History lives

Markham Middle School will hold a "Living History Day" on May 19th, from 12:00 until 3:00 p.m. Older citizens are invited for lunch and a tour of the school, which will include memorabilia and class discussions about local history.

Students hope some of the guests will allow students to interview them about their experiences. Students are especially interested in what school was like in past years.

The program was organized by Earl Winchester. All interested "grandparents" and "great grandparents" are invited. Call 246-8493 for transportation.

Anniversary begins

New Hope Baptist Church began celebrating its 24th anniversary on May 9, 1976, with Reverend S.S. McCullum and Morning Star Baptist Church, and will continue celebrating through May 16, 1976. Services will be held nightly at 7:30 p.m. and local churches have been extended invitations. Final services will be at 3:00 p.m. on May 16th with Reverend L. Ranson and Mt. Sinai Baptist Church. Mrs. Bertha Walker is the Chairlady for the Church's Anniversary. Reverend A. Bernard Devers is the Pastor.
