

Samuel James joins Navy

SAMUEL JAMES

Samuel R. James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. James, has enlisted in the United States Navy. James enlisted in the Navy's Delayed Entry Program and will report for basic training in San Diego.

According to recruiter Bill Tate, the time a man spends in the Delayed Entry Program counts for pay purpose when active duty begins, and fulfills a portion of his military obligation while still at home.

The nine weeks of Navy basic training teaches such subjects as seamanship, ordinance, damage control, shipboard orientation, safety precautions, naval discipline, history and Navy customs. Physical conditioning, personal hygiene and first aid are also included.

Following basic training, James is scheduled to attend Class "A" Radioman school at the Naval Training Center in San Diego.

Samuel James is a 1976 graduate of Jefferson High School and was enlisted into the Navy by Bill Tate, the local navy recruiter at 6735 N. Basin Ave. Those interested in the many programs in the New Navy can contact Tate at his office at 285-6561.

Feasts in ancient India were at one time so lavish a law was passed restricting each repast to no more than three guests.
