QUESTION: What is the Wagner-Peyser Act in connection with the Oregon Employment Division?

ANSWER: The Wagner-Peyser Act, approved by Congress June 6th, 1933, established the present system of public employment offices, administered in Oregon by the Employment Division. The first section of the Act reads: "In order to promote the establishment and maintenance of a national system of public employment offices there is hereby created in the (U.S.) Department of Labor a bureau to be known as the United States Employment Service." Section 3 of the Act reads: "It shall be the province and duty of the bureau to promote and develop a national system of employment offices for men, women, and juniors who are legally qualified to engage in gainful occupations, including employment counseling and placement services for handicapped persons, to maintain a veterans' service to be devoted to securing employment for veterans, to maintain a farm placement service, to maintain a public employment service for the District of Columbia, and, in the manner hereinafter provided, to assist in establishing and maintaining systems of public employment offices in the several States and the political subdivisions thereof in which there shall be located a veterans' employment service. The bureau shall also assist in coordinating the public employment offices throughout the country and in increasing their usefulness by developing and prescribing minimum standards of efficiency, assisting them in meeting problems peculiar to their localities, promoting uniformity in their administrative and statistical procedure, furnishing and publishing information as to the opportunities for employment and other information of value in the operation of the system, and maintaining a system for clearing labor between the several States."

EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY

The State Housing Division seeks proposals for the construction or rehabilitation of multi-family rental projects for lower income households. Approved projects will receive mortgage financing and rent subsidy payments through the Division.

The area and number of units for which the Division is seeking proposals is listed below:

Area: Multnomah, Clackamas and Washington Counties. Units Available: 20 two bedroom units, 40 three bedroom units.

Sponsors are encouraged to submit proposals for projects which combine bedroom types. Any size of multiple-unit project may be acceptable provided it does not exceed the total units available for the area.

Preference will be given to rehabilitation projects, small projects to be built and owned by local sponsors, and projects which maximize the use of local labor and suppliers.

The Division is an equal opportunity lender. All units financed and subsidized by the Division must be rented without regard to race, creed, religion, sex, or national origin of the potential tenants.

To receive a developer's packet, which includes all necessary forms and explanatory material, write or call the Housing Division, Department of Commerce, Labor and Industries Building, Salem, Oregon 97310; telephone 378-4343.
