Country artists visit Portland

Larry Gatlin, currently best known for his "Statues Without Hearts" hit single, will join Tammy Wynette and her Tennessee Gentlemen in a single concert date on January 6, 1977 at 7 P.M. at the Portland Civic Auditorium. The Benefit Concert will raise funds for the state-wide programming of the Mental Health Association of Oregon, Inc. Tickets for this concert are on sale at the "Ticket Place" at Lipmans, the Civic Auditorium and all the usual outlets.

Larry Gatlin says of himself: "I write country songs for a living and I'm proud of it. I love it!" So, in a phrase, Larry Gatlin describes the reason for his tandem success as a singer/songwriter. He does what he does well because it's such a passion in his life. It has been for as many years as he can remember.

Even before recording his initial album on the Monument label, Larry Gatlin ranked with Kris Kristofferson and Mickey Newbury as one of the best new contemporary singer-writers...evidenced by Gatlin tunes recorded by Johnny Cash, Dottie West, Ray Price and most recently, Elvis Presley.

Tammy Wynette's extraordinary success is the product of extraordinary talent. The ability to capture a song with emotion, warmth, and solitude are the elements that have placed Tammy at the very top of the entertainment world.

Born and raised in the deep South Tammy developed a love affair with music at an early age. She performed on talent shows, charity programs, and local radio shows; as many country stars have in the beginning stages of their careers.

Amidst raising a young family on her own, Tammy came to Nashville for the first time to pitch songs for a friend. There she met Billy Sherrill, a now legendary producer, who had just begun writing and producing hits on David Houston. Sherrill saw Tammy's potential and together they waited for the right song. "Apartment No. 9" was the first they chose and the initial hit in a recording career that has never once failed to deliver one.

LARRY GATLIN

Tammy Wynette's hits include: "The Wonders You Perform," "Good Lovin'," "D-I-V-O-R-C-E," "The Ways to Love a Man," "Till I Get It Right," "Send Me No Roses", and of course, her 1969 Grammy Winner, "Stand By Your Man", all outstanding singles!

Tammy has been equally successful as an album recording artist. Tammy was the first female country artist to win a Gold Record (for sales exceeding one million as certified by the R.I.A.A.) for her Greatest Hits album. Each of her other Epic recordings have likewise achieved a large degree of success, each making its mark on the charts.

Tammy is a four-time winner of the Country Music Association's Top Female Vocalist Award. She has won three Grammys as Best Female Vocalist and just about every other award she could possibly win in the country field. She is one of the most honored performers in country music today.

Pearls from the Poet

by Ulysess Marshall

STOLEN LOVE

I'd need a Fountain of Youth
And a ton of gold
To once again have a happy soul
After all my love you stole

But I realize
If I couldn't be mad
I couldn't be glad
So thank you for all these bad, bad blues.

VICTIM

A victim of hard living staggered past me.
In his eyes I saw the will to die
As he walked past the cats on the corner
They obliged him.

PRISONER

I'm a Prisoner of yours
But I don't want no parole
Because baby your good loving satisfies and soothes my soul.

Now I hope like hell
That I'll get life
Because that means
You'll be my wife.

I'm a prisoner of yours
But I'm not chained or bound
Your good loving makes me stick around.

You are Welcome to Worship at
