COMMUNITY CALENDAR

On Sunday, July 10th, a musical benefit for Greenpeace will be held at the Euphoria Tavern, 315 S.E. Third in Portland. Appearing will be Benny Thomason, Weiser champion and a judge at the '77 Old Time Fiddling Contest in Weiser; Dan Presley from Portland's "Muddy Bottom Boys"; and Robert Force and Albert d'Oasche, dulcimer players extraordinaire. The music will begin at 8:00 p.m. All proceeds go to the Greenpeace "Save The Whales" campaign.

On July 30, 1977, Friends of Multnomah County Library will hold a sale of used, non-library books in the basement parking area of the Galleria. The proceeds of this event will go to benefit the Multnomah County Library.

Thousands of children's books and adult fiction and non-fiction will be on sale along with tapes, records, sheet music, encyclopedias, sets of books, quality magazines, and rare and valuable collector's volumes.

Books are priced within reach of all book lovers. Hardcover will sell for 25 cents, paperbacks for 10 cents, and sets and rare volumes at equally tempting prices. This year there will be special events for children. Storytellers from the Multnomah County Library staff will read and tell stories throughout the day.

A demonstration panel of Recovery, Inc., the Association of Nervous and Former Mental Patients, will be held at St. Andrew's Church, N.E. 9th & Alberta, on Monday, July 11th at 8:00 p.m. The Panel will launch the new group which will meet at the same time and place every week.

Recovery is an international organization which employs a systematic self-help method originated and perfected by the late Psychiatrist and Neurologist, Dr. Abraham A. Low. Now celebrating its fortieth anniversary, the organization's objectives are to prevent relapses in former mental patients and chronic conditions in nervous patients. Through their Recovery training, members learn to handle the frustrations and irritations of every day life with practice and encouragement of other members of the group who have succeeded in conquering their fears. Meetings are open to the public and there is no charge for attending.
