Meals will be provided at 128 N.E. Russell Street.

Portland Public School District is currently sending out survey forms to parents of Portland school children to determine the district's eligibility for federal funds under Public Law 874. The form filled out by parents will indicate to the district which of those parents live and/or work on non-taxable federal property. The district receives funds in lieu of property taxes for such children. During the 1976-77 school year the district qualified for $225,000 under the law.
