

The Pacific Northwest's Finest

David Nero

Nero and Associates, Inc. is a minority owned, multi-racially staffed Oregon based entity with a branch office in Washington, D.C. The firm is headed by David M. Nero, Jr., President, and is heavily engaged in pioneering research, technology and environmental impact statements, manpower planning, timber stand improvement and forest management services, environmental studies, construction management, architectural design, general contracting and construction, early childhood education, special education, conference management and land clearing.

Nero and Associates' subsidiary firms include Center for Educational Research, Inc., a non-profit training and research corporation; Nero Industries, Inc., designed for labor intensive work and employment of disadvantaged and unskilled; CIRCA the development company, that provides various training programs, conference management services and business and staff development; Nero Construction Management Corporation, a general contracting firm with architectural design, engineering and construction management capabilities.

The firm has been in business in the State of Oregon since May 1969. The corporation has performed contracts throughout the nation and has an unparalleled reputation in the quality of their work and timeliness of delivery.

The key staff members of the corporation are Ernest J. DeRocher, Executive Vice President and General Manager, Joann Reynolds, Vice President and Secretary, Carol Stanko, Vice President and Treasurer. The firm is fully insured and bondable up to five million dollars.

Head Office

Nero and Associates, Inc.
208 S.W. Stark Street, Suite 602
Portland, Oregon 97204
(503) 223-4150