Proceeds will go toward scholarships for the summer YMCA program and camp. For more information call 287-2523 or 287-2535.

Obituaries

Cynthia Turner was born August 31, 1946 in Athens, Texas to Mr. Eddie L. Overton and Mrs. Celia Mae Overton. She was the third daughter of a family of eight girls.

Mrs. Turner joined Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church of Athens, Texas. She was a faithful member, serving as a Sunday School teacher and as a member of their Youth Choir. She graduated from Dogan High School in Fairfield, Texas in May 1963.

Mrs. Turner worked as a bookkeeper for the Girl Scouts of America for three years and the Albina Action Center for the last three years. She was a willing and dedicated volunteer worker with the Sportmen Little League. She was recently appointed to coordinate the snack wagon and fund raising events for the Irving Park Little League.

Mrs. Turner was married to Fred Turner, Jr. on August 31, 1975. They were the parents of three children. Ce Celia D. Overton, Alvin S. Overton, and Danielle L. Turner. They were the foster parents of Lavelle Woods.

Cynthia Turner died on May 12, 1978. Services were held on May 17th at New Hope Baptist Church with Reverend A. Bernard Devers officiating.

Cynthia leaves to mourn, her parents, Mrs. Celia Mae Yancey of Champaign, Illinois and Mr. Eddie L. Overton of Portland; sisters: Lorraine Mongum and Annette Preston of Portland; Terry Hill, Pamela Alexander, Stephanie Overton and Tracy Yancey of Champaign, Illinois; and Becky Lynn Grant of Wichita, Kansas.

Grandparents: Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Overton of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. James Lallar of Athens, Texas; and a host of Aunts, Uncles, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins, and many friends.

ODE TO CYNTHIA

by Ronald E. Sykes

God bless you Cynthia for this we know. You'll make things brighter wherever you may go.

No one can tell for whom the bells toll. But must be ready to accept their role.

Life may be short and it may be long. It was brief for Cynthia but beautiful and strong.

Those that are left won't judge or lament. For all these good people loved you dearly "Cynth."

Father in Heaven, who's watching the world. Please watch over this wonderful girl.

We'll miss her smile; but we'll try, try harder. Maybe one day we'll hear... Hi, hey partner!!!!
