Money Market Certificates are non-negotiable, with the same early withdrawal penalties* as other time certificates. They offer investors one of our most attractive rates ever on short-term investments.

7-3/4% 8-Year First Investment Certificates. We've extended our First Investment Certificate program to 8 years, with a higher 7-3/4% guaranteed annual rate of interest. The same $1,000 minimum and early withdrawal penalty* are in effect on this new certificate which offers investors higher interest over a longer term than ever before.

Other shorter term First Investment Certificates are also available at lower rates.

Money Market Certificates and 8-Year First Investment Certificates are two more reasons why we've got what it takes for you to say, "That's My Bank."

Representative Wally Priestley presents a cake to employees of the U.S. Postal Service Permit Section on Election Day. Al Jacobs and Stan Rycnaki get the first pieces. "The Postal Service gets so much criticism that I just want to give these men a little praise," Priestley explained. "They did a terrific job in getting out the political mailings and I think they deserve some credit."

Following the 1976 election the Postal Service was hit with several complaints, an investigation and a congressional hearing over alleged mishandling of political mail.
