

FOR JOGGERS

Another trail of interest to hikers and especially to joggers is Terwilliger Drive. This road, which leaves Southwest Broadway and twines through the southwest hills, has always been set aside as a scenic drive, not to be widened or made into a freeway type drive. Along the road lies a jogging path which has exercise stations along the way where the ambitious jogger can stop and work on his other muscles.

This trail has an excellent view of the city, the river and the mountains.
