

SANTA CLAUSE

Santa Clause's reindeer makes him fly
Very high in the sky.
With dolls and balls,
And games and trains.

Santa Clause goes down your chimney,
And comes up really dirty.
He gets in his sleigh red and white
And goes on to another flight.

ON ONE CHRISTMAS

On one Christmas
Our Lord was born
In a stable where animals lay
Our Lord sleeps very quietly
In his bed of hay

On a hill lay a boy
Our Lord Jesus lay
He grew to be a great man And today the world is in his hands.

Dear Santa,
I would like a doll name Cindy. And I would like a bike to and I would like to give you a picture of me. And I would be a nice girl all this week and I would help my mother with the dishes and I would help my little brother with his homework! With all of my love. I love my family and I love you to Santa.
