Good Friday service planned

The Albina Ministerial Alliance and the Union Fellowship of Churches are combining efforts to provide special Good Friday Services for the Albina Community and others in Portland at a time most convenient for all to come and worship together.

The service is scheduled to be held at Bethel A.M.E. Church, 5828 N.E. 8th Avenue, the Reverend L. Fisher Hines is the Pastor. The Good Friday Services begin at 7:30 p.m. Reverend O.M. Peavey, Pastor of the First African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church will be delivering the sermon. Everyone is invited to come and participate in this service.

This marks the first time the Union Fellowship of Ministers and Churches and the Albina Ministerial have joined together to bring such a service to the people of the community. Plans are underway to bring more community-wide religious services sponsored by several churches to the people of Portland.

The Reverend John Garlington, Pastor of Maranatha Church is the President of the Albina Ministerial Alliance and the Reverend Austin V. Ray, Pastor of Hughes Memorial United Methodist Church is President of the Union Fellowship.

Plans are now underway to sponsor the next religious community program on the fourth Sunday evening in May in memory of the Van Port flood.

Allen Temple holds Easter Service

Allen Temple C.M.E. Church, 4236 N.E. 8th Avenue, invites the public to Easter Religious Worship Services on Easter Day. Services begin with the Easter Sunrise Service at 6:00 a.m. This service is sponsored by the three Power Pools and Bible Study Groups of the Church. They will share with the worshippers the different accounts of the Resurrection as recorded by the Gospel Writers. The Sermon for the Easter Sunrise Service will be delivered by the Reverend Ira D. Mumford of Allen Temple C.M.E. Church and Reorganizer of the Smith Chapel C.M.E. Church Mission. Everyone is welcome to come and witness the resurrection with us. This service always provides time and space for personal witnesses and testimonies by those who know He lives.

Following the Sunrise Service, breakfast will be served in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Stay and fast and fellowship with us. The men of the church promise to use their best chef expertise to provide a good breakfast for everyone.

The 11:00 a.m. service will feature the Adult Choir of the church at its best in singing the songs of victory at Easter time. Sermon will be by Reverend T.L. Strayhand, Pastor. Make this Easter your best by being a personal witness to the resurrection and experience the joy of the fellowship with the living Christ and those who knew him before the crucifixion.

The Family Nurse Practitioner talks about the pap test and the examination with her new patient.

County offers pap tests

A monthly breast examination is suggested to detect any changes in your breasts and screen for breast cancer. Breast Self Exam is taught at the clinic, so you may continue to take responsibility for your own health and give yourself a monthly breast examination.

For more information, or to make an appointment for the Pap Clinic, please call 248-5183. Call today!

A yearly Pap test to screen for cervical cancer is a must for all women. To enable you to have a Pap Test, Multnomah County Division of Direct Health Services and The American Cancer Society are sponsoring a free Pap Clinic at the Multi-Service Center every other Tuesday evening from 4:00-7:00 p.m. This clinic is for all women of Northeast Portland who have not had a Pap Test within the last year.
