The day dawned bright and full of sunshine for the beautiful wedding of Sylvia Jeanne Gates and David Murray Carlisle. The two young people plighted their troth at 2:00 p.m., Saturday, June 23rd at the Campus Ministry of Portland State University.

Sylvia Jeanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Osly J. Gates of this city, and David Murray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David K. Carlisle of Los Angeles.

The wedding vows, uniting the two families, were made in a double-ring ceremony conducted by the Reverend F. Orlo Hoye and the Reverend Dr. G. Palmer Pardington. Many members of the extended families of both the bride and the bridegroom were in attendance as were scores of friends and well-wishers.

Miss Gates, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white silken gown with chapel length train. The empire bodice of her gown and the tight-fitting long sleeves were appliqued with an old lace pattern and were stitched with tiny seed pearls. Her finger-tip length veil fell around her shoulders from a lace and pearl coronet. She carried a nosegay of miniature white rosebuds. The lace mitts and the pearl earrings she wore the young men wore pink carnation boutonnieres.

With vows completed, the newly wed pair stood hand in hand, still facing the flower laden altar, while original love sonnets and passages of scripture were read by two of the bridesmaids and the responses by two of the groom's men.

Mrs. Lucille Pulliam, harpist of Portland, played familiar ballads as a prelude to the wedding. For the processional and recessional of the bridal party, Hail Thee, Festival Day by Williams, and Haydn's Glorious Things of Thee are Spoken, and Festes de l'Ete by Montclair, were heard.

Lighting the tapers were Gary Moy of Portland. The guest book was in charge of little Miss Karen Hiatt.

The bride, a graduate of Cleveland High School in Portland, is also a graduate of Stanford University. Currently she is now in her second year of her medical school career at Brown University.

The bridegroom was educated at Wesleyan University in Connecticut. He is now in his third year of medical studies at Stanford University Medical School.

Most of the young men who acted as ushers have been classmates of David at one time or another. Kurt Johnson, the best man from Washington, D.C., is completing his studies at University of Maryland. Vernon Henderson and Alonzo White are both senior medical students at Stanford. Michael Donnell, of Chicago, just received his law degree from University of Chicago and William Ponds, who is David's brother-in-law, is an accountant with a large CPA firm in New York City.

To include the two fathers of the new couple would be to mention that Osly J. Gates, well known to Portlanders, is the Executive Director of the City-County Commission on Aging. David K. Carlisle, a West Point graduate with a military career behind him, is now an engineer and a commodities broker in Los Angeles.

The newlyweds share an interest in medical research and community service. Both have been active in the campus life and organizations of their respective medical schools.

Sylvia's maid of honor, Michelle Long, a graduate of Stanford University, has just received her Masters degree in Hospital Administration from Duke University in Durham, North Carolina. She has not yet chosen which university she will attend for her year of internship.

Gary Moy, the lighter of the candles, is a third year student in Civil Engineering at Oregon State University. He was an earlier classmate of Sylvia's.

A reception followed immediately after the chapel ceremony giving the throngs of local wedding guests a chance to greet the happy new couple and to meet the many out of town guests.

The honeymoon is to be a leisurely cross country trip, after which is the new Mr. and Mrs. David Murray Carlisle's will resume their medical studies.

Dinner benefits Youth Center

The Pauline Memorial A.M.E. Zion Church is sponsoring a barbeque at the home of the co-Pastors The Reverends Nellie and Odell Thompson, 1217 N.E. Mason Street July 4th.

Chicken and sparerib dinners will be available for a donation of $3.50 per plate, beginning at 10:00 a.m.

Plans are being made for delivery service upon request.

The proceeds from this event will be contributed to the building and operating fund of the Christian Youth Center, which will be incorporated as a non-profit organization.

So much is being said these days about ways to prevent crime. Incarcerated in Oregon State Penitentiary are some inmates who have come to know and accept Jesus Christ as their personal savior. They feel that emphasis should be placed in finding ways to deter youth from becoming just another name and number in the criminal justice system. With this in mind they conceived the idea of establishing the Christian Youth Center dedicated to teaching youths to govern their lives according to Christian concepts.

Recreation, vocational training and counseling will be available to youth of all races and creeds as a means of helping them choose the right path in life.

For more information about the barbeque or the Christian Youth Center please call 287-8939.

Ennis Whaley Ensemble featured

NOTIFICATION OF FUND AVAILABILITY No. OR16-0039

The Department of Housing and Urban Development will accept Preliminary Proposals for newly constructed or substantially rehabilitated housing units under the Section 8 Housing Assistance Payments Program, to be located in Portland S.M.S.A. (all of Clackamas, Multnomah and Washington Counties) and Vancouver, WA (Clark County).

Proposals may be submitted by private owners or Public Housing Agency (PHA) Owners for direct contracting with HUD, or by PHAs on behalf of Owners with whom the PHA proposes to contract pursuant to an Annual Contributions Contract with HUD.

We anticipate that Contract Authority in the amount of $650,000 will be made available to provide assistance for an estimated 70 units of elderly or handicapped, 71 units of family and 25 units of large families for a total of 166 units.

Proposals must be received by 4:00 P.M. on August 2, 1979. This deadline may be shortened or extended by HUD. In such case HUD will notify all parties who have previously registered with the field office requesting such notification.

Submission deadlines shall not apply to Proposals for projects in which the number of assisted units will be limited to 20 percent or less of the dwelling units. However, such proposals received after the deadline will be reviewed only if sufficient contract authority remains from this Notification to fund the proposal.

Appropriate instructions, forms and other program information are contained in the Developer's Packet which may be obtained from the Portland Area Office Housing Division, Cascade Building, 520 S.W. 6th Avenue, Portland, OR 97204.
