4-H choir celebrates six years

The Portland 4-H Choral Ensemble is celebrating its sixth anniversary during the week of October 10-14. The celebration is open to the public and will be held each evening at 7:30 p.m. at St. Paul Church of God in Christ, 2859 N.E. Rodney Street, Bishop J.C. Foster, Pastor, Sunday at 3:00 p.m. The Ensemble will do a medley of songs reflecting their history through music. Their theme is "Glad to be in God's Service." A special highlight performance will be featured at each program. Choral groups from churches throughout the Albina community will participate.

The Portland 4-H Choral Ensemble has become well known to the Albina community through its musical performances throughout the city, at churches, community centers, and for civic programs.

Betty Hardy, community advisor for Urban 4-H, organized the singing group in 1973. Members are from the inner-city community and from churches throughout the Albina area. The Ensemble has since performed throughout the State of Oregon, Washington, and California. They are recognized for performing a variety of songs under the direction of Ira D. Mumford, Extension Agent.

Mumford noted, "I am very happy with the development growth of the Choral Ensemble. They have adopted me as their 'Papa,' and I am a proud father."

Officers of the group are: Iretta Mumford, President; Kim Kimmons, Secretary-Treasurer. The Choral Ensemble motto is "A Group That Sings Together Through Prayer Will Stay Together."

Members are Rance McDougal, Betty Hardy, Tara Warren, Kimberly Kimmons, Carmen Warren, Joslyn Grant, Deirdra Williams, Jackie Grant, Iretta Mumford, Debra Turner, Royce Hardy, Emily Turner, Deirdre Jenkins, and Michelle Murry.
