Bill Glass Crusade at OSP

The Pope may have been touring Ireland and the United States, but Bill Glass Crusade was touring the Oregon State Penitentiary.

It was a weekend never before witnessed inside these tall old grey walls. But Hoyt C. Cupp, Superintendent and his staff members had surprised not only many of the inmates, but also the public. Opening the iron gates to a large group of people to walk into a maximum security prison to roam at will would shake up many prison officials, especially when those people are famous in the world of entertainment, politics and law. But stranger yet, these citizens from throughout these United States were not here to demonstrate their expertise in their professional fields. They came to have church fellowship with 1,500 incarcerated prisoners.

Some times a picture is worth more than a thousand words, so this week it is an honor for Behind the Walls and the Portland Observer to present a rare sight found in a state penitentiary.

The inmates and staff are grateful to all who participated in the "Crusade" because many spirits were brightened.

Paul Wrenn, world weight lifter, demonstrates his power.

CAUSE I AM BLIND

Why don't you love me?
the young man cried.
He laughed and he died
the people thought he was fine but I just sighed cause I'm blind.

When I was young and so naive then I would preach love and peace, then I grew old and it became meat and I found out that I couldn't eat.
Don't know why cause I'm blind.

The young man pulled his woman near felt her up and said I love you dear, she rolled over and sighed
I cried the night love died.
Don't know why cause I'm blind.

SAINTS OR SINNERS

Saints or sinners
good or bad God has bestowed upon us the right or wrong of the problem at hand as long as we stand upon God's land and a part of the kingdom of man we shall forever be saints or sinners

SOLUTION

Pardon me if I intrude upon your loneliness, but there can be no loneliness with two.

FOLLOW - THROUGH
Knowing Follow-Through Keys is Important

A NEW PERSPECTIVE

Knowing how to recognize and use the important Key to unlock what you want, and to lock out what you don't want is important.

For instance, can you recognize the key to the following objectives?

What is

- the key to successes
- the key to happiness
- the key to health
- the key to wealth
- the key to money
- the key to respect

What is

- the key to failure
- the key to misery
- the key to sickness
- the key to poverty
- the key to lack of money
- the key to disrespect

Can you identify the keys to:
- maintaining a successful business
- finding and holding a good job
- raising a successful family

Answers to these questions will be shared by Dr. Thomas Boothe, Director of Marketing for American State Bank and author of the Follow-Through Concept. During the month of November, call 284-7997 for schedules.
