Beverly Duckett and Fine Line

by Ronald Hall

Beverly Duckett and Fine Line played their music with a fine touch as they entertained the crowd at the Greenwood Inn. From the sweet voice of Beverly Duckett to the fantastic sound of pianist Eliot King Smith of Fine Line, it was a show that all should see.

Beverly Duckett has worked the club circuit for a long time and has learned to handle herself as a pro. She works an audience so well that people want to come back and hear her sing. She's on her way to the top and she's not stopping to take any breaks.

Members of the band (Fine Line) are pianist Eliot King Smith; bass guitar, David McMillen; lead guitar, Brent Richardson and their drummer of two nights, Greg Lagrado.

The band is smooth and only heightens the show and sound of Miss Duckett. Greg Lagrado started two nights earlier with little chance for rehearsal, but you would never know by the way he keeps the tempo at a steady drive.

Beverly Duckett and Fine Line are from Oakland, California, but are thinking of moving to the Northwest. All I can say is, "Good luck and keep the groove thing going."

Pageant Selects OMAKA Products

Ms. Teen USA Pageant for 1979-80 has selected the Omaka Corporation as the official hair products company for the contestants.

Analysts for the State of California met in Fresno Sheraton Hotel a few weeks ago to decide the California Queen who will compete in the Finals come November this year, in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Ms. Vernetta R. Wendorf, State Director for the California segment, said the judging was on scholastic and Civic achievements, beauty, poise and personality. The beautiful and talented Karyl Knopp, of Orange Vale, California, walked away with the Queen's crown and will be the only contestant from California. Chuck Williams, public relations for the Omaka Company, said Ms. Knopp will be under agreement with Omaka for advertising its products as Ms. Teen USA California.
