St. Philip given parish status

By Kathryn H. Bogle

St. Philip The Deacon Parish, was admitted to the union of parishes of The Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Oregon, as of October 20, 1979. About 400 persons, including clergy, vestry, members and friends of The Episcopal Church gathered to witness and endorse the union.

Father William (Bill) Wetzel, young Vicar of St. Philip, is fond of saying, "I still believe in the Son when I cannot see the light." That day, his own face aglow, the young Vicar's message was clear. The day was for celebration.

Held long in the dreaming, held by faith, the event became fact when the legislative body of the Diocese met at Holiday Inn Airport, ending a three-day conference of last week. Although the outcome of their deliberations regarding the petition of St. Philip was anticipated optimistically, there had been many, many years of preparation for this day. Fifty years may be sixty or more.

There had been a last year of preliminary steps that had to be followed precisely. There had to be a molding of attitudes for a supportive congregation to carry on the full responsibilities of parish status.

But the day had arrived, and when the pronouncement was made, a minor pandemonium broke out and spread quickly. The sedate meeting came to a halt. The Rt. Rev. Matthew Begliardi, presiding Bishop of the conference, rose to his feet and joined in the joyous celebration. Some wept quietly.

Fr. Bill, the catalyst for all of this day, loomed taller than ever among the well-wishers who crowded around. To them, he was heard to say again and again, "We have come this far by faith."

St. Philip The Deacon Parish had become of age.

If you have a problem that is not covered in this list, please call and ask whether we can help. Chances are, we can. If not, we can recommend someone else for you to call. One way or the other, we want to see you get the kind of professional legal counsel you're entitled to.

The best time to call us, or any attorney, is before you are embroiled in a legal problem. This is called preventative law and it makes a lot of sense.

Regardless, when you call us we will arrange for an initial consultation at your convenience. Cost: $20. We probably can't solve anything in this meeting, but it is a chance for you to explain your particular problem and for us to give you some idea of what it'll take to reach a solution. If you want us to proceed, we'll give you an estimate of the fees you should plan on. In writing.
