NAACP begins seal campaign

The Portland Branch, NAACP, kicks off its 1979 Holiday Seal Campaign with a Zodiac children's contest and freedom seal King/Queen contest to be run to December 9th. The annual fund raising campaign will also include a "Pre-holiday Dance and Fashion Extravaganza" to be held on December 2, at the Lloyd Center Sheraton. NAACP holiday seals sell for $1 per hundred.

The Zodiac children's contest will feature a variety of fund-raising events puts on in the name of the child representing each of the twelve signs of the Zodiac. The child under whose name the most funds are raised by contest end will receive $25 worth of shares in the NAACP Credit Union.

Community churches have been invited to select a representative in the King/Queen contest and will sponsor various fund-raising activities in each representative's name. The representative whose church raises the most funds will be declared the winner.

The December 2 "Fashion Extravaganza" will feature top local models in the West Ballroom of the Lloyd Center Sheraton Hotel from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. Tickets are $7.50 and may be purchased by calling coordinator Gerri Ward at 281-5209.

Those interested in supporting either of the following Zodiac or King/Queen contestants, call either of the following:
