OBSERVATIONS FROM THE SIDELINES

By Kathryn H. Bogle

You are invited to a reception at The Portland Art Museum on November 16, 1979. Hours are from 8:00 pm to 10:00 pm.

The reception is to celebrate the publication of a book of major importance, "The Art of Cameroon" by Dr. Paul Gebauer. It also will pay tribute to the contribution of Paul and Clara Gebauer to the international field of African Studies.

An honored foreign guest is to be his Excellency Benoit Bindzi, Cameroonian Ambassador.

There will be opportunity to view an exhibition of the African photographs taken by Paul Gebauer when the Gebauers lived in the Cameroons.

At 8:30 pm in the Berg Sivann Auditorium of the museum, Roy Sieber, curator of primitive art at Indiana University, Fine Arts Museum, will speak. Dr. Sieber wrote the introduction to the book, "Art of Cameroon." Katherine C. White, a long time colleague of Dr. Gebauer will also speak.

The auditorium seats about 400 persons. Tickets to the auditorium event will be needed so if you want to reserve a seat, call the museum ahead of time to make your reservations.

Remember the two-day symposium follows on November 17 and 18. These events are open to the public without charge.

If you have an African wardrobe, it would be considered a tribute to his Excellency to wear African garments to the reception.

We show you pictures of some art items you might see at the museum.

The area covered is within the boundaries bordered by 82nd Street on the West, both sides City or County, the Hood River County Line on the East, the Columbia River on the North, and the Clackamas County Line on the South. This includes all incorporated and uni-incorporated cities within these boundaries.

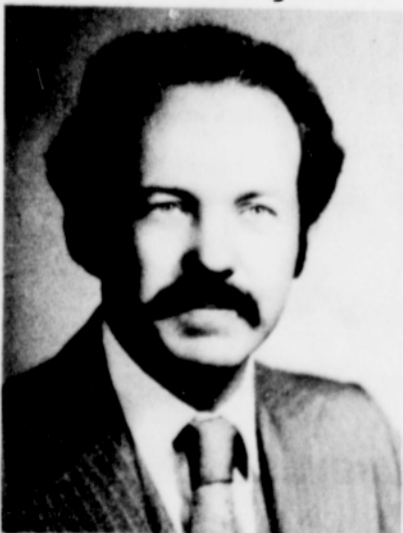

Those who need gifts for their children, up to the age of 15 years inclusive, should call 256-1546 Sunday through Friday, 9:00 AM-3:00 PM to see if they qualify for help. Don't wait-call now. Toy and Joy must talk to the parent or legal guardian to obtain information that only they can give.

Volunteers are needed to help in the program and funds. Tax deductible donations may be mailed to District 10 Toy & Joy Makers, 11608 N.E. San Rafael St., Portland, Oregon 97220. The public's help will make possible a Merry Christmas for those children whose parents need help, and the elderly in nursing homes and homes for the aged.
