WANTED

Minorities/Females for a career in law enforcement

The citizens of Portland deserve a Police Bureau that is representative of the community it serves.

If you are interested in becoming a police officer and serving your community we are interested in you.

The Portland Police Bureau is anticipating having training sessions to prepare interested minorities/females for the fall examination.

The training sessions will probably consist of informal classroom instruction, tours, ride-alongs and discussion meetings. The schedules would be varied to meet the needs of the group (s) and to avoid work/school hour conflicts.

If you are interested in attending these sessions please fill out the below contact card and mail to:
