IRS employees celebrate Black History Week

Last week to celebrate Black History Week the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Black federal employees sponsored a very entertaining and informative program. At the Portland Federal Building, Judge Mercedes Deiz officially opened the week's event.

Others on the program included Anthony Phillips singing "Lift Every Voice and Sing," Herb Cawthorne's oral presentation of Martin Luther King and W.E.B. DuBois; songs by Mattie Spears and Ira Mumford; music by Andre Stewart and the Sounds of Jefferson; and poetry by Roland Tate.

Talks on different aspects of the Black experience were given by Commissioners Gladys McCoy and Charles Jordan, Reverend L.F. Hines of Bethel A.M.E. Church and Ron Herndon of the Black United Front.

The week long event concluded with a luncheon of traditional foods from the Black community including Southern Fried Chicken, Bar-B-Que ribs, greens, cabbage, ham hocks, ham, sweet potatoes, blackeyed peas, seafood gumbo, corn bread and sweet potato pie.

The IRS Black federal employees are planning to follow-up this event with others during the year.

If you have a problem that is not covered in this list, please call and ask whether we can help. Chances are, we can. If not, we can recommend someone else for you to call. One way or the other, we want to see you get the kind of professional legal counsel you're entitled to.

The best time to call us, or any attorney, is before you are embroiled in a legal problem. This is called preventative law and it makes a lot of sense.

Regardless, when you call us we will arrange for an initial consultation at your convenience. Cost: $20. We probably can't solve anything in this meeting, but it is a chance for you to explain your particular problem and for us to give you some idea of what it'll take to reach a solution. If you want us to proceed, we'll give you an estimate of the fees you should plan on. In writing.
