

Portland community College students Lillie Battie and Debra Stewart discuss office occupation careers with PCC business education instructor Marjorie Carson. Battie and Stewart study typing and business machines at PCC's Cascade Center, 705 N. Killingsworth.

At

Bonneville Power Administration,

We put a lot of "energy" into developing human resources, too.

BPA is one of the nations' largest power marketing agencies and is part of the U.S. Department of Energy. If you are an engineer (or thinking of becoming one), Computer Specialist/Programmer, Energy Conservationist or environmentalist, we invite you to explore the future you can have with us. If you are a student, inquire about our Cooperative Education Program.

Openings are available in a wide variety of areas. Our expanding energy program, for example, offers the opportunity to contribute to such emerging areas as conservation of energy, solar energy application, and alternate energy sources.

If you are interested in a career with

Bonneville Power Administration,
