Ivancie welcomes EDAC

"First Source Agreement" contracts with potential business, and will be involved with the implementation of the new neighborhood economic development emphasis of the Housing and Community Development Block Grant.

Although EDAC has concentrated on Federal Economic Development money (CEDS) in the past, that money is expected to be terminated by the Reagan administration so the committee will look elsewhere for funds.

Most of the CEDS money has been spent, but funds are being made available to River East

Progress, Inc., a local development corporation established by the Union Avenue Business Boosters and Thomas Kennedy of PDC.

The minority loan fund of $1.6 has made five loans with three in process. This fund is projected to be empty within 90 days.

Committee members now include Matthew Akom, Luis Alvaes, Greg Batiste, James Berchtold, Gertrude Boyle, Paul Breuer, Geraldine Daskalos, William Fast, Grace Gallegos, Levar Gonzales, Louis Growney, Phillipa Harrison, John Knez, Ray Ruscitti, Edwinn Smith, and Janice Wilson.
