Former student elected prexy

It was 20 years ago that Judi Williams was the only Black child in the 94-member graduating class of Holy Redeemer School in North Portland. She had set a landmark by entering the sixth grade three years earlier to become the first Black student in an enrollment of almost 800 students.

Now 20 years later, she is the mother of four sons, an interviewer for the Housing Authority of Portland, and the newly elected co-holder with her husband Arnold, of the office of president of the Holy Redeemer School Parents Club.

The 73-year-old parochial school now has an enrollment of 415 students, and numbers in its ranks 125 Black students, 150 non-Catholics and 20 Vietnamese youngsters.

"I am very pleased to be elected to the office along with my husband," Mrs. Petri said, "and we are looking forward to doing some good things with the other newly elected officers for the students and the other parents."

Other officers elected to the club's board are: Mrs. Ali Savage, 1st Vice-President; Jesse and Evelyn Rutherford, 2nd Vice-President; Mrs. Marlyn Wood, Secretary; and William and Betty Jones, Treasurer.

The Petris are long time residents of Portland, and their oldest son, Kevin, is a Holy Redeemer graduate and student at Benson High. Anthony is a second grader at Holy Redeemer, while Ryan and Tyrone are prospective students for the state's parochial school.

College choir visits Bethel

The Edward Waters College Concert Choir will be presented in concert at Bethel A.M.E. Church, 5828 NE 8th Avenue on May 18, 1981 at 7:00 p.m. There talented singers are under the direction of Assistant Professor Willie E. Jackson and accompanied by Assistant Professor Henry A. Mack.

The program will feature a wide variety of choral music including classical, contemporary and popular music as well as Negro Spirituals and contemporary gospel music. There will be a charge of $5. Tickets may be obtained at Stevens & Sons, 1020 Lloyd Center. For more information call June Terry at 281-0813.

Ask Aunt Bea

Dear Aunt Bea:
Where does a lonely, Black professional female begin to locate an eligible Black professional male? All local single parent clubs and groups have whites only. Is there no club organized so that Blacks can date Blacks?
Rich, but lonely

Dear Lonely,
I've found no such service in our fair city. Geneva's and Bourbon Street lounge are two of the most popular places that might offer a fair number of eligible professional males. However, there is a group in town that gives private invitation on affairs. We are trying to convince them to advertise their club in the news media, and hopefully they will, so keep in touch.
Aunt Bea

Dear Aunt Bea:
We're new in town from California, and are just getting settled in our new N.E. home. We've joined a church and have the kids settled in school. Both my husband and I work in downtown Portland. We've not made many friends as of yet, but would like to get in the know and involved in community happenings. Can you tell us aside from church activities where we can do this?
New in town

Dear New in Town,
You're just in time for this Saturday's meeting (May 2nd, 9:30 a.m. till noon). Every other week (Saturday) the Portland Observer sponsor's a Legislative Breakfast at Bourbon Street Lounge, located at N.E. Grand and Weilder street. The public is invited to meet our legislators and discuss various bills and issues that affect our community. This will provide an excellent opportunity to meet other interested and involved citizens of the community and information of what's happening in the area politically.
Aunt Bea

Send your problems to Aunt Bea at Box 3137, Portland, Oregon 97208.
