Ask Aunt Bea
 Dear Aunt Bea:
 A few days ago, I saw Eldridge Cleaver being interviewed on T.V. He appears to be a completely different man from the Eldridge Cleaver of the Black Panther years. He has even accepted Christianity. I personally can't understand such a vast change in any one person. Personally I feel he's up to his old tricks with a new twist. Did you see this interview? Please comment.
 P.R.
 NE Portland
 Dear J.B.:
 There's no guarantee this will change her mind, but I feel it's worth a try.
 Surprise your wife one day with a lovely outfit and reservations for dining and dancing at a fancy restaurant. Maybe even a glass of wine and a compliment of how beautiful she is before leaving the house. How can any woman resist! and not enjoy? Bon appetite.
 Aunt Bea
 My wife works in a Day Care Center and has no need (she insists) to dress expensively. I'm an executive in a downtown office and wear a suit or sports jacket and tie every day.
 I enjoy bumming around in jeans and frequent places that allow casual attire. My wife does not like fancy dress, as a matter of fact, she doesn't own any after 5 attire. Now I like being casual since I wear coat and tie every day, but I would very much enjoy an occasional after 5 or formal evening out (to which she flatly refuses). What can I do to change her mind?
 J.B.
