SALES MANAGER

Attention Log Home. The following may be well worth reading. I am an experienced Forest Products Utilization Forester with a broad background in the Sawmill Improvement Program, Quality Control, Logging and Management, and Marketing. I have been a professional forester since 1954. Recently I have gone into business for myself. My business associate and I have formed Woodstone Industries, a diversified organization. We are looking for a Log Home Sales Manager to organize a sales force to market natural and manufactured logs of all types, plus a complete line of lumber products. You must have a proven track record as a log home or lumber salesman and be willing to work independently in a thrifty and industrious manner. I am specifically interested in finding someone with whom I can establish a pleasant relationship. Contact:
