Toran speaks at Mount Olivet

Kay Toran, State Affirmative Action Officer, will be the featured speaker for "Women's Day" at Mount Olivet Baptist Church, Northeast 1st and Schuyler, on Sunday, July 12 at the 11:00 A.M. service. This year's theme is "The Total Christian Woman."

Music will be furnished by a women's chorus composed of members of Mount Olivet, directed by Julianne Johnson and accompanied by Barbara Williams.

Preceding Sunday's service, on Saturday, July 11 at 12:00, a luncheon and panel discussion of "The Total Christian Woman" will take place at the church. The panel will be composed of women from the community.

Mrs. Toran is a graduate of Portland State University's School of Social Work. Previous to her appointment to the Governor's office, she was Branch Manager of the Albina Branch, Adult and Family Services.

Sermons explore issues

Dr. Terry Swicegood, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church, has announced his July sermons. Controversial? You bet! The July 12th sermon will deal with the church's decision not to ordain "avowed, practicing homosexuals," Portland psychiatrist Dr. William Sack and a representative from the Portland Town Council, a gay rights group, will respond.

The July 19 sermon will treat the current situation in El Salvador and the US policy there. Dr. James Gardner, new president of Lewis and Clark College, and Terry Sorelle, American Friends Service Committee, will respond.

The July 26th sermon will be on racism in Portland: "Is Portland becoming Possum City USA?" Ron Herndon, co-chairman of the Black United Front, and Sid Birt, Westminster elder, will respond.

The goal of the series is to bring the insights of the Gospel to bear on issues that are making headlines. Sermons are held in the Sanctuary, 1640 N.E. Hancock, at 10:00 a.m., with the response discussions in the Great Hall.

Allen Temple CME Church will honor Reverend Thomas Strayhand 12th anniversary as Pastor on July 12th, at 3:30 p.m. The program honoring Rev. Strayhand, his wife and his daughters, is billed as "Thirteen Years of Togetherness." The program will feature church, civic and community leaders. The Bethel AME Church and the Allen Temple Young Peoples' Choir will be featured; speaker is Rev. L. Fisher Hines, Pastor of Bethel AME.

The community is invited to participate. The church is located at N.E. 8th and Skidmore.

We extend you a cordial Welcome to
