

The Portland Observer is proud to present to the Portland Metropolitan area a documentary on the life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.—a man who paid the supreme sacrifice of his life for the causes in which he believed.

Many young people who are not aware of the indignities and atrocities forced on a race of people during the years before King will one day appreciate what he did to make their lives more bountiful.

The Portland Observer takes the lead in educating and promoting equality. This issue is the first of many that we will present, adhering to our role of promoting understanding among all people.
