

Tom Byers of Athletics West crosses the wire in 3:56.7 for the first ever sub-4 time at the Oregon Indoor Track and Field Meet. Byers, formerly of Ohio State, currently lives in Eugene.

Oregon Indoor Track and Field Meet a huge success

Doug Padilla steals the two-mile from favorite Alberto Salazar. Padilla broke away with 3 1/2 laps to go, winning in 8:25, the fastest indoor mile this year.

Leann Warren, University of Oregon, does it again. Leann took the mile in 4:37.9 with Michele Bush of UCLA close on her heels at the final turn. The Warren kick left Bush far behind with 4:42.1.

Phil Christian of the University of Oregon cleared the bar but did not place. Jake Jacoby of Boise State was first at 7-0, with Walt Reynolds of Oregon at 6-10.

K. Konishi of Japan clears 17-0 with ease. He was followed by I. Takasawa of Japan and Scott Davis of OSU.
