Mental health clinic holds Open House
by Harris Levon McRae

The North/northeast Community Mental Health Center located at 310 NE Oregon is having an Open House on Friday, Feb. 19th to get acquainted with the community they are serving.

After two years of planning, this community received a federal grant in November, 1980, to develop a comprehensive community mental health center—the North/Northeast Community Mental Health Center, Inc., as the main agency for mental health services for this section of the county. The Center provides preventive maintenance and rehabilitative mental health care to the diverse cultural groups of this community regardless of their ability to pay.

"We want people to realize just what services are available for them," says Barbara Gaines, program developer for the Center. "Fees are based on a sliding scale determined by gross family income and number of dependents. No North/Northeast resident will be refused service because of inability to pay."

Services are provided by a qualified staff of psychiatrists, social workers, psychologists, and other mental health professionals.

All residents of North/Northeast Portland are eligible for services. Their service area boundaries are the Willamette and Columbia Rivers, 82nd Avenue on the east, and the Banfield Freeway on the south. All residents of this area, regardless of race, color, creed, or age are eligible for services.

The North/Northeast Center is now fully operational and the services provided include a 24-hour emergency service for people in crisis, case management for the chronically mentally ill person, geriatric programs for older citizens and community housing as an alternative to hospitalization.

"Despite the fact that we are strained for funds, these are much needed services," says Barbara Gaines.

The Center is funded from federal, state and county funds; as well as private donations and client fees.

The open house is from 3 pm to 8 pm, and the public is urged to attend. There will be food and music and a ribbon cutting ceremony presided over by County Commissioner Gladys McCoy.

In the face of difficult and troubled times the people at the center are helping the residents and community of North/Northeast Portland to pull together to respond to the mental health needs of our citizens.
