

All-time Blazers

by Ron Sykes

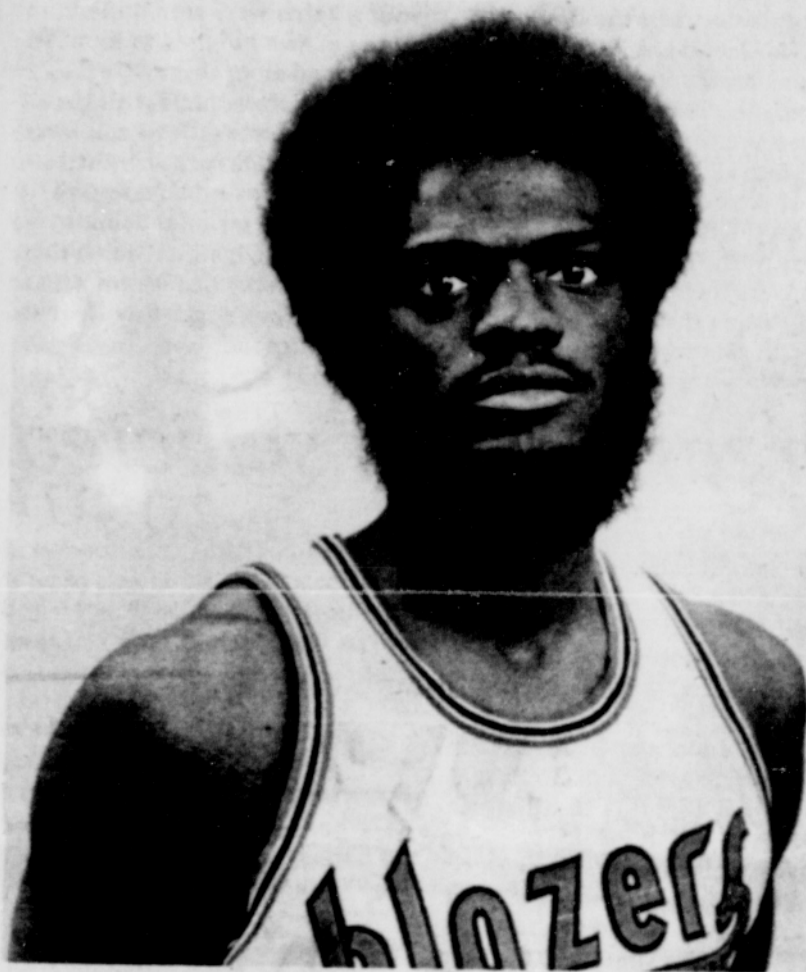

The Trailblazer Oldtimers team made its debut last weekend in the Dalles before a crowd of some two thousand plus. There were reminiscences and flash-backs of things that once were but will never again be. Seeing ex-players like Geoff Petrie, Greg Smith, LaRue Martin, Shaler Halimon, prompted us to think of an all-time Blazer team. The guards would be Lionel Hollins and Petrie, and the big redhead Bill Walton in the middle. Picking the forwards would be tough, but the choice here is Lloyd Neal and super Sidney Wicks.

The biggest denomination bill printed by the U.S. today is the $100. The formerly-printed $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $100,000 bills aren't printed anymore.

How much do elephants weigh? The biggest weigh about 14,000 pounds each.

Oddly, the state of Delaware was named after the colonial governor of Virginia—Lord De La Warr—who never traveled to the state named after him in his life.

OSU, Oregon women meet

The Open Division lead in the Northwest Women's Basketball League will be at stake tonight, February 11th, when Oregon State hosts the 11th-ranked University of Oregon at Gill Coliseum in Corvallis.

This will be the third meeting between the two teams this season. Oregon won easily in the semifinals of the Giusti Tournament in Portland, defeating the Beavers 65-48 in a very physical contest. But Oregon State nearly pulled off an upset in Eugene last month, leading throughout the game before falling 63-60.

Oregon leads the Open Division with a 2-0 record. The Beavers are right behind at 2-1 and Washington is 0-3.

An Oregon win would give the Ducks undisputed first place, while an Oregon State win would give the Beavers a share of the lead.

The Beavers are on a three-game winning streak. OSU pummeled the University of Nevada-Los Vegas for third place in the Nike Tournament, then outlasted the University of Washington 83-76 in Corvallis. Their latest win was 74-56 over Boise State.

Oregon, after losing to national powerhouses USC and UCLA at the end of January, came back to beat Boise State on the road.

OSU is going into the contest with a 14-6 record which includes losses to nationally ranked Tennessee, Oregon (twice), Texas and Kansas. The Beavers also lost to California, a team they had beaten by 18 points in the Giusti Tournament.

Jan Martin has led the Oregon State scoring in the two games against Oregon this year, with 17 points in the Giusti Tournament and 25 points in Eugene. Robyn Clark has been the leading OSU rebounder with a total of 14 in the two games.

Oregon has been led by the one-two Canadian punch of Bev Smith and Alison Lang. Smith had 18 points and 20 rebounds in the Giusti Tournament, 19 points and 10 rebounds in Eugene. Lang's totals are 22 and 13, and 26 and 18.

Current standings are as follows:

Alexander's Landscaping	6-1

I LOVE YOU

I love you...

Like sunsets and sleepy moons;

Like waves rushing and streams flowing;

Like long conversations and moments of silence;

Like flowers blossoming and autumn leaves falling

Like kisses on my nose and heartfelt tears...

I love you.
