The Belgians cut off my hands

They lynched me in Texas.

At the feet o' Jesus,
Sorrow like a sea.
Lordy, let yo' mercy
Come driftin' down on me.

At the feet o' Jesus
At yo' feet I stand.
O, ma little Jesus,
Please reach out yo' hand.

—Langston Hughes

Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune
(1875-1955)

One of the greatest women America has produced, Mary McLeod Bethune rose from a position as field hand picking cotton in South Carolina where she was born to one as advisor, confidante and friend of Pres. and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. She served as Roosevelt's director of the Negro Division of the National Youth Administration and was a familiar sight at the White House where she always pleaded for justice for Blacks. Almost single-handedly she built Bethune-Cookman College in Florida, an institution whose graduates number in the thousands.
