

THEY MARCHED FOR THEIR FREEDOM

Car pools were an effective means of getting to work; many walked.

Empty buses wait as Blacks in Montgomery walk rather than ride in segregated busses.

The Paper Tree

2916 N.E. Broadway
284-4741

Social Stationery and Party Shop

Carter Goodwin Woodson (1875-1950)

Born in Canton, Virginia, educated at Berea College, Kentucky, he earned his B.A. in 1907 and his M.A., from the University of Chicago, in 1908. After receiving his Ph.D. from Harvard in 1912, he became a college professor and Dean of the College of Liberal Arts at Howard University, in 1921. In 1910 he organized the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History. He initiated the Annual February observance of Negro History Week in 1926, and wrote and published 16 outstanding books on Black History. He received the Spingarn Medal in 1926.

