Beavers celebrate diamond anniversary

"Celebration"—that's the year-long theme for the Portland Beavers' Diamond Anniversary in 1982. It'll be a season of "celebration" as Portland's oldest sports franchise plans a year of special events designed to commemorate the Beavers' 75th anniversary in the Pacific Coast League. "The Celebration" will be highlighted by a "Fourth of July Weekend Extravaganza."

Since joining the PCL as a charter member in 1903, the Portland Beavers have added to the baseball-rich tradition of the Rose City. 1982 will be a chance to look back and "celebrate," as we remember Vaughn Street, Judge and Walter McCredie, Ed Basinski, Frankie Austin and on and on...

The renovation of Civic Stadium and the return of Field Box Seats will help to make 1982 one to remember.

AAA Girls State Basketball Championship

March 2-6 the class AAA girls State basketball championship will get under way from the Salem armory.

The lower bracket...for some strange reasons pits the PIL champion (East) Jackson (19-1) against the PIL Champion (West) Grant (18-2) on Wednesday, 9 pm.

One of these superbly talented teams will surely lose, but the biggest losers will be the fans. Three of the State's finest players will be pitted against each other in the tournament's first round with the losers going to the consolation bracket.

Saturday Basketball League

The Alexander's have done it again, with a score of 99-71 against the Moore St./Whites. In other games, Lee Ace's slipped past the Portland Tab 68-75 and the Moore St./Blues upset the Jackson Five 100-68. The final game of the league will be played by these teams on February 27th between 11:00 am and 3:00 pm at P.C.C. Current standings are as follows:

Pil fans should crow long and loud over this early match up. However, this should be a great tourney for the girls because there are some truly great players involved this year.

The St. Mary's Blues (19-0) features Heather McDuffie and Karen Howell and this pair can play with the best around.

Team	Record
Alexander's Landscaping	8-1
Lee Ace	7-2
Portland Tab	5-4
Moore St./Blues	5-4
Moore St./Whites	2-7
Jackson Five	0-9

High scorers were J.W. Thomas of Alexander's with 31, followed by Ken Wesson, Moore St./Blues, 27, and Greg, Moore St./Whites, 24.

Grassroot News, N.W.—The car business is bearing up under the economic pressures imposed by the imports. Especially Four Seasons Dodge out on 25th and Sandy. Its owner, Dan Pistorese, says, "We're holding our own. In the last four years, percentage-wise we're outselling Ford and Chevy."

Pistorese is a native Oregonian who has been in the car dealership business for years. "You know we build some of the finest units in the world. Here we have the largest wholesale parts department in the Northwest. We also have the best service department with many of our mechanics who have been on board for nearly 30 years. Our sales staff is highly qualified and we utilized computers to save our customers money because we spend less office time on each order." They offer all lines of Dodge trucks, vans and two- and four-seaters. The American car makers have had their share of problems. "The Japanese can manufacture a car for a lot less because they pay their workers a smaller wage. Our factories had their way until the competitors came on full force. But it was our ingenuity and money that put them in business." Pistorese says that we are so benevolent to other countries we may need to turn that around and help ourselves.

"The flip side of imports is that they cost more to repair. American cars were safer and if people were to use preventive maintenance we wouldn't have all the trouble with our own cars."

Dan Pistorese says that Four Seasons Dodge offers the largest line of used cars so if your income does not afford a new Dodge, buy used.

Will Teofilo Stevenson, Cuba's three time Olympic gold medalist, participate in the Cuba vs USA matches to be held in Havana on Feb. 28th?

Since gaining his first gold in the heavyweight division in Moscow, Stevenson has had only two fights. The first was a mere formality.

His showing in the recent Playa Giron tourney showed he is still a champion, but the National Commission on Boxing decided that he should not meet his arch rival Angel Millan because he has not reached his full potential.

Stevenson plans to participate in the Cuba vs USA match.
