

Sold into slavery . . .

Approximately 10,000 slaves a year were taken from the Gold Coast in the late 18th Century.

Slaves were taken to the United States to work in the fields. Others were taken to the Caribbean where Yankee traders sold them for rum to finance the growth of industry in the north.

Slaves packed in the schooner "Amistad"

They break loose and capture the ship

Harriet Tubman

Though unable to read or write, Harriet Tubman was described as "strong as a man, brave as a lion, cunning as a fox". The "Black Moses", she was the leading conductor on the Underground Railroad that guided slaves north to freedom. She made 19 trips to the South and freed some 300 slaves.
