The Marshall Minutemaids captured their second straight class AAA girls basketball championship by downing Jackson 49-42.

Marshall was led by their 6-4, all-state center, Jennifer Freeman, who scored a game-high 24 points.

Marshall won the AAA championship last year behind the super efforts of Tina Blair, who now wears the Orange and Black of Oregon State.

Give Kudos to Marshall Coach Ken Trapp who gave instructions to his team to go to their strength, Freeman, down low and she took advantage by scoring all 24 of her points from point-blank range.

Marshall Coach Jim MacDicken for some strange reason chose to leave his best defensive player, Lisa Channel, out front on defense. Thus nullifying both her rebounding and defense inside, where it was so badly needed.

He finally switched Channel inside with less than two minutes remaining in the game, but by then the contest had already been decided.

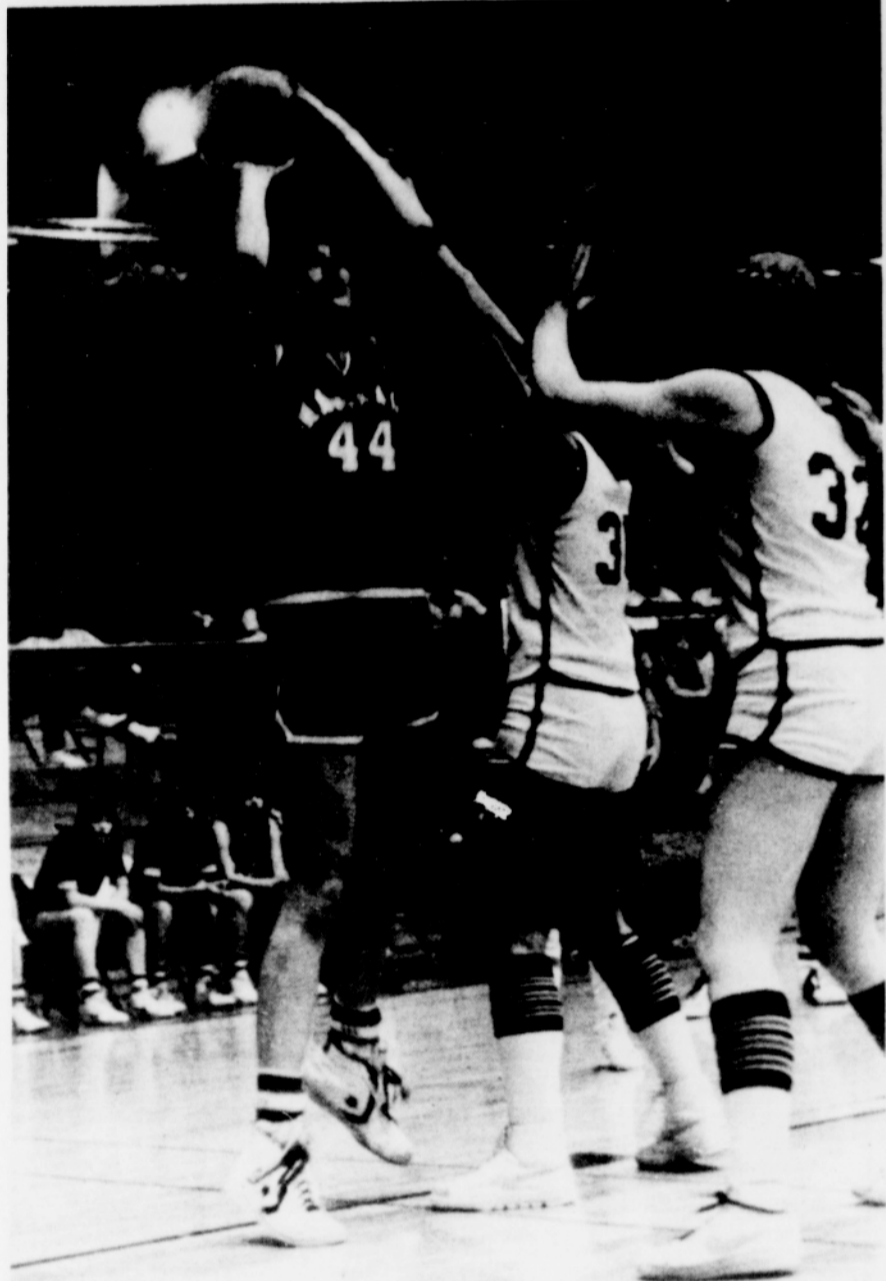

Throughout the season Lisa Channel was a dominant force on both offense and defense for the lady Raiders. Had she been employed inside on defense the Raiders not the Minutemaids would be the 1982 Champions.

Lisa Channel, a truly fine player, led Jackson with 22 points all from the field.

Lisa Channel scored all her team's field goals except five.

Vickie Channel, Lisa's sophomore sister, managed just six points. She had zero field goals and was 6 for 10 from the field.

Jennifer Freeman, who scored 24 for Marshall, goes over Liz Patton and Robin Blanchard.

Lisa Channel of Jackson goes up for two. Lisa was high point player for Jackson, with 22. Guarding are Jennifer Freeman and Belinda Nuguez of Marshall.
