Easter services scheduled

The Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon will again hold Easter services.

Good Friday services will be held at the First Baptist Church, 909 SW 11th Avenue. Ministers from the Downtown Churches will lead reflections on the Seven Last Words of Christ. Dr. William Reike, President of Pacific Lutheran University, will bring the message, and the Warner Pacific College Choir will sing. The service begins at noon and ends at 1:00 pm.

A second service will be held at Grace Memorial Episcopal Church, 1535 NE 17th. Ministers of Northeast churches will lead short meditations on the Seven Last Words of Christ. The two-hour service will begin at noon.

Mke Donahue, Presbyterian layman and KOIN-TV newscaster, will bring the message at the 57th Annual Easter Service. The service will begin at 6:30 a.m. at the Amphitheater in Washington Park.

Featured are the Rex Putnam High School Choir; the Encore Brass, a twelve-piece brass ensemble; and dance, mime and congregational singing. For the first time the service will be signed for the deaf and hearing impaired.

PORTLAND SATURDAY MARKET OPENS 1982 SEASON

The most successful crafts marketplace in the country returns on April 3, when Portland Saturday Market begins its ninth season. Over 300 crafts and 30 food booths will set up under the Burnside Bridge each weekend from April through Christmas. Performances by featured entertainers and street musicians add to the festivities. Thousands of visitors each year know the market to be a source of some of the Northwest's finest handcrafts and fresh produce, all sold by the maker. Special events throughout the year and an ever-changing array of booths and products make the market a shopping experience for all seasons, and 1982 promises to be our most exciting year.

HOURS: Saturday 10 am-5 pm, Sunday 11 am-5 pm, rain or shine, April 3rd and 4th through Christmas.
