From the time you drop a letter into the mailbox to the time it is delivered, there are 22 separate steps in handling it.

Lynn Swann's wife Bernadette has run into many problems because of her fair skin and long hair.

"Looking White" Is A Struggle

Growing up black in America is a problem that becomes even greater when you're light-skinned, claims the wife of football great Lynn Swann. 23-year-old Bernadette Swann, the daughter of Paul Robi of the Platters, says growing up was hard because black girls were always picking fights with her, trying to cut her hair, and running her out of school. She recalls that tension increased when she brought her white (Argentinian) mother to a PTA meeting.

Now Mrs. Swann is encountering problems in her modeling career. She is often turned down for black modeling jobs because the clients think she'll photograph "too white." Bernadette Swann says she's tired of "light-skinned models being ignored" and "light-skinned people being slighted." She is also tired of "these terrible conflicts blacks have among themselves ... because you're a light-skinned woman (people think) you have it easy ... I struggle too."

According to folklore, if you eat a grape, it means that it will surely rain the next day.

Slowtrain, featuring Lee Garrett, will be at the Last Hurrah Restaurant and Night Club July 2nd and 3rd, two nights only!!! Don't miss this great show, 555 S.W. Alder, 224-1336.

Slowtrain Returns

Slowtrain is back in town for a few gigs at the Last Hurrah, Friday July 2nd and Saturday July 3rd, 1982. The seven-piece band has been in Los Angeles putting a recording together and hopes to be back on the road again soon.

The musicianship is high and this could be the next band to break big out of Portland, if things click. Beverly Duckett's vocals are excellent and when Lee Garrett joins the group to be highlighted at the end of a set, the soul-funk-R&B sound builds to a rhythmic climax.

This Week

Dancers Workshop has exciting slate of performances, workshops and classes planned for summer. These include modern jazz, jazz, latin-ballroom, Latin dance (Merengue, Rumba, Cha Cha, etc.). 221-0569.

Western Forestry Center tours: Tree nursery, Sauvie Island Wildlife management, St. Helens, etc. 228-1367.

City Theater Workshop presents Teiffer's People, which explores the comic side of human anxiety in dealing with city life, love and modern society. Play runs through July 18 every Friday, Saturday and Sunday at 8:00 p.m. Mt. Tabor Annex, 511 SE 60th.

Portland's Skid Road area is seeking famous people to participate in its 2nd Annual Hobo Parade August 1st. Ralph Waite, the father on the Waltons TV series, will be Grand Marshal. Famous people should meet one or all of the following criteria: current or ex-hobos, been "down-and-out" at some point, have actually ridden the rails.

The parade will be followed by a rally of the unemployed with musicians, speakers and food.

Your Zoo and All That Jazz. Wednesdays and Thursdays at 6:30 p.m. near the elephant exhibit.

Democratic Socialists of America July 4th picnic, Columbia Park, bring potluck dish and enjoy music, games and beer. 282-1300

Love, Love, Love

Eleven famous black men explain why they love black women in the July issue of Ebony.

Many of them love black women because of their mothers, grandmothers and wives. Others say it's the black woman's inner beauty that they adore. Still others love black women because of their combination of strength and tenderness that has held the black family together.

Brilliant young actor Howard Rollins speaks for many of the respondents when he says, "Because without them I wouldn't be here, and because they are here, I have a better sense of who I am."
