This season's new new look

Fashion news from New York emphasizes the narrow lines of slim skirts and pants coupled with blouson tops and flowing capes, according to October's Ebony.

A perfect example of this season's best is the attention-getting brown leather and mohair suit, worn by the model. Note the body-hugging pants paired with the blouson jacket for a softer silhouette. The look for Fall/Winter '82 demands accessories like those pictured here: the snappy fedora, eye-catching gloves, and seductive high heels.

The new styles this year are sure to attract admiring glances and spice up your life... with a little romance!

Plan ahead for Halloween

Whether you go as a vamp, a tramp, or just plain camp, it's wise to plan ahead for the creation of your Halloween party attire. Avoid headaches in costume rental by checking these specialty shops in advance for selection and size. Ask the salesperson about availability and rental fees, and by all means, shop around.

For the more adventurous, creating your own original costume can be exciting and inexpensive. Some wonderful accessories can be found at resale clothing shops and thriftshops. Just wandering around in some of these shops will help you with ideas, even if you have nothing in mind. But again, these places become very popular around Halloween and selection varies, so plan ahead, and have a good time!
