Request For Proposals

City Of Portland Development Commission

Proposals Due 5:00 p.m., March 10, 1983

The City of Portland and the Portland Development Commission (PDC) propose to utilize an "incubator" strategy to promote the growth of minority- and female-owned businesses within Inner Northeast Portland. Requests for Proposals are being solicited to purchase, rehabilitate, and operate an incubator project at the Weimer Building, located at 3934 N.E. Union Avenue, Portland, Oregon.

The development rehabilitation will consist of a multi-tenant, commercial/industrial incubator facility which will offer new, recently established or expanding enterprises a professional business environment including below-market-rate rents and office and support services. Implementation of this project is part of the Economic Development Program for the Northeast Target Area and is governed by the objectives adopted by City Council on March 18, 1982.

Deadline for submitting proposals is 5:00 p.m., March 10, 1983. Interested developers may write or call the Portland Development Commission for further information. Request for Proposal packets are also available at the PDC offices.
