

The Holidays in Portland

The "Rainbows" of Beach Elementary School, under the direction of Mrs. Louise Pritchett, Music Teacher, shared their Christmas joys in song with a group of senior citizens at the Neighbors of Woodcraft Nursing Home in Gresham. They sang a Medley of Christmas carols: Silent Night, Deck the Halls, Away in a Manger, Jingle Bells, White Christmas, Joy to the World, and Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer. The singers were: Scott Leckington, Tera Murray, Sara Robledo, Benard Brandon, Cindy Moszer, Chan Luu, Linda Pham, Ron Durham, Valerie Two Two, Jessica Amonson, Lisa Johnston, Richard Crews, and Mike Futch, 5th graders; Christ Duran, Lea Leverich, Kim Pham, Becky Horst, Jesse Stricker, Angelique Flake, Latonya Davis, Cornelius Nevills, Serena Pilot, Jenny Ludwig, Kim Moon, W'oape Pearson, Jenny Casey, 4th Graders.

The students were given a tour of the Nursing Home by Mrs. Heinrich, Director. For many of the students this was their first time visiting a Nursing Home of this type and seeing senior citizens in this setting. This was a memorable occasion for both the students and senior citizens.

Kwanza. Hakeem McCallister of the Black Educational Center lights the candle representing the first day of Kwanza. The seven days of Kwanza started Sunday and will continue until Saturday, Jan. 1, 1983. The activities are held at the B.E.C. (corner of 17th & Alberta) and the public is invited.

Continuing a tradition that's spanned 20 years, Mr. and Mrs. John Wiseman (ctr.) welcome guests Betty Thompson and George Hill to their Christmas Eve open house. Son Travis Wiseman and his wife Kim and son T.J. look on.
