"Any law that uplifts human personality is just. Any law that degrades human personality is unjust. All segregation statutes are unjust because segregation distorts the soul and damages the personality."

"It's better to go to jail with dignity than accept segregation in humility."

"I think the greatest victory of this period was . . . something internal. The real victory was what this period did to the psyche of the black man. The greatness of this period was that we armed ourselves with dignity and respect."

Albany, 1962

"Get in your walkin' shoes; walk together children, and don'tcha get weary."

"In a sense all life is interrelated.

The agony of the poor impoverishes the rich;
the betterment of the poor enriches the rich.

We are inevitably our brother's keeper because we are our brother's brother.

Whatever affects one directly affects all indirectly."
