

Let freedom ring . . .

President Lyndon Johnson signs the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

---

We have waited for more than three hundred and forty years for our constitutional and God-given rights. . . .

---

An Alabama citizen votes for the first time.

An elderly woman finds the courage to attempt to register to vote.

CONCERNED

. . . I am as deeply concerned about our own troops there as anything else. For it occurs to me that what we are subjecting them to in Vietnam is not simply a brutalizing process that goes on in any war, where armies face each other and seek to destroy. We are adding cynicism to the process of death, for they must know after a short period that none of the things we claim to be fighting for are really involved, and the more sophisticated surely realize that we are on the side of the wealthy and the secure while we create a hell for the poor.
