

We have an economic agenda

Memphis, 1968

"We have an agenda that we must follow . . . economic withdrawal from the oppressor."

Police react with violence after agent provocateurs in the march break ranks and smash windows.

"We don't have to argue with anybody. We don't have to curse and go around acting bad with our words. We don't need any bricks and bottles, we don't need any Molotov cocktails, we just need to go around to these stores, and to these massive industries in our country, and say, "God sent us by here to say to you that you're not treating his children right. And we've come by here to ask you to make the first item on your agenda—fair treatment, where God's children are concerned. Now, if you are not prepared to do that, we do have an agenda that we must follow. And our agenda calls for withdrawing economic support from you."

OUGHT TO BE

"All men are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied in a single garment of destiny. I can never be what I ought to be until you are what you ought to be, and you can never be what you ought to be until I am what I ought to be."

—Martin Luther King, Jr.

Republican Party of Oregon