

Martin Luther King Elementary School students provide music for King Day 1970 at Oregon Legislature.

We shall overcome, we shall overcome
 We shall overcome some day,
 Oh, deep in my heart I do believe
 We shall overcome some day
 (Repeat the last two lines after every verse)

We'll walk hand in hand, we'll walk hand in hand
 We'll walk hand in hand, some day,

Black and white together, black and white together
 Black and white together, some day,

The truth will make us free, the truth will make us free,
 The truth will make us free some day,

The Lord will see us through, the Lord will see us through,
 The Lord will see us through some day,

We shall live in peace, we shall live in peace,
 We shall live in peace some day,

We are not afraid, we are not afraid,
 We are not afraid today,

The whole wide world around, the whole wide world around
 The whole wide world around some day,

We shall overcome, we shall overcome
 We shall overcome some day
 Oh, deep in my heart I do believe
 We shall overcome some day.

We will remember!

"Oppressed people cannot remain oppressed forever — the yearning for freedom eventually manifests itself."
