Vanity

You may wonder why Vanity, lead singer of Vanity 6, goes onstage in little more than black leather boots and a silk camisole.

"It's an extension of my personality," says the 19-year-old singer/songwriter, "and of the other girls in the group. I don't like clothes that much—I don't feel comfortable in them. To me, what I wear onstage is like walking on the beach in a bathing suit. If I felt at all uncomfortable, I wouldn't do it. I mean, I cover up all the private essentials while still showing the best of me!"

Indeed, it seems that Vanity's distaste for constricting clothes is a lifelong condition. "Even when I'm in my room," she adds, "I strip. Clothes tie up my body! Even when I was a little girl growing up, I'd love to run around half naked. And, then, you know, when I started sprouting, my mother had to admonish me to put clothes on: 'You can't walk around in your underwear all the time!'" "Could anything keep the long-legged beauty from going onstage in her lingerie? "Yes," says Vanity, "I wouldn't do it if I weighed 500 pounds."

"Valentine vibrations"

Valentine Vibrations, a community dance party, is planned for Neighbors of Woodcraft Hall on Saturday, February 12th, from 8 p.m. until 2 a.m. Headlining the event will be Tony Collins' Lights Out, playing state-of-the-art funk and jazz interpretations. This group has had wide appeal in recent appearances at such clubs as Rodeo and Slick Willy's.

Lead-off band will be Sheila and The Monarchs in a heralded debut performance.

Sponsored by N.E. Business Center and The Strike Force Security Service, J.W. Friday will emcee the event, which will offer a no-host full buar and Magic Pantry foods. Tickets are available in advance from House of Sound, Music Millenium, and at the Board of Trade Building downtown at $5 each, $8 per couple. At the door it will be $6 each, $9.50 per couple.

Neighbors of Woodcraft Hall is located at 1410 S.W. Morrison.

Iggy Pop

The John Bauer Concert Company is pleased to announce that Iggy Pop will make a rare Portland appearance on Saturday, February 19, 1983, at Starry Nights, Portland's newest hot spot, located at N.W. 6th and Burnside in downtown Portland. Showtime is 9:00 p.m.

Iggy Pop, considered by many to be the "Godfather of Punk," promises to deliver his usual high-energy show to Portland fans. Those who've seen or experienced "The Ig" in concert, don't need convincing. For those who've never seen rock's most bizarre and dynamic performers, all we can say is "Don't miss this show!"

Tickets for Iggy Pop are $9 available at all Portland area G.I. Joes and Singles-Going-Steady Records at 949 S.W. Oak.

Lights Out
 Headliners "Lights Out" in an exciting late set! State-of-the-art funk and contemporary jazz for movin' or jus' listenin'!

From the sounds of Stevie Wonder and Howard Johnson, to their own original hit "Take It" — they're the best!

Led by ace trumpeter Tony Collins, the group includes Kerry McCoy on keyboards, John Mazzocco, bass, Damian Dillon, drums, Dennis Springer, sax, Greg Dalton, guitar, Andy Stokes, vocals.

Sheila & the Monarchs
 Welcome back, Sheila, with an all-new, five-piece, professional back-up band! The sound of Motown, blues, R&B — old and new — for an evening's lively kick-off!

Sheila Wilcoxson's vocalizing has never been better! And her panel of talented instrumentalists includes about 75 years' worth of experience: Bishop Cochran on guitar, Michael Mendicino, keyboards, Bryan Naptown, drums, Rob Shoemaker, bass, Bruce Kinraid, sax.
